

In most humble wise p[re]sents unto yo[ur] mat[er]y, yo[ur] mat[er]y dutyfull & obedyent Subor tyms p[re]sents of an estate of enghentams or fishow for termes of ye[ar]s of & in the sd p[re]sentacion therunto belonging to the said Lord Abgani, so the said Lord Subort was according to the p[re]sentacion aforesaid lawfully instituted & indur nght & indert in & unto the said Benefice yo[ur] Subort did remaine & conty Subortys tithes were well & truly paid satisfied & contented to yo[ur] Su tyms aforesaid contynnyng & his quiet & peaceable possor & com of & in the Thomas Smyth Honoris Smyth Robert Baker Thomas Taylor Edm good quiet & Assentis of yo[ur] Subort gave of late combyned & comby Smyth or yo[ur] noble p[ro]gramtob made or granted they have plotted & en they have & did lawfully falsly & p[ro]vulid give out & report that aforesaid they promised the said Richard Sundry to be p[re]sented to Sundry therunto, and to gaine & obtaine to & for themselves the ma indur & court, for yo[ur] Subort & his servaunt being in the said church all of them having weaponts did upon the sabbote day fortably & ruth wound & misse from the servaunt & home of yo[ur] Subortys ther being, and by not for the the sabbote or some other day p[er] by the practice & prom & might to grant & walk about the said church & churchyard, kinble to sometyms boat & sturor, not knowing who nor how the said blood was was alwaies lay & loked for more by might gaine & take the possor &